Is your new primary state of residence (PSOR) a member of the Nurse Licensure Compact (NLC)?

NO
- Apply for licensure by endorsement* in the desired state.
- You may not practice in a noncompact state until you receive a temporary or permanent license.
- You may hold additional licenses in noncompact states.
- Your single state license is valid for practice only in the state of issuance.

YES
- Apply for license in your new PSOR.
  - YES
    - You may practice with the current active multistate license until the new multistate license is issued.
  - NO
    - Apply for license in your new PSOR.
- Was your previous PSOR a compact state?
  - YES
    - You may hold only one multistate license and multiple noncompact state licenses.
  - NO
    - Your new multistate license grants the privilege to practice in all NLC states.

* NLC states are: AL, CA, CO, GA, MD, MN, MS, MT, NE, NH, NJ, NV, NY, OR, RI, SC, VT, VA, WV.